A MESSAGE TO JOHN DOE #2 READERS:

With JD#2, Parts 11 and 12, Strassmeir & his buddies will be tied to the ATF's and the FBI's posteriors, with clear associations that link OKC to the Mueller murders and to the bank robbery spree. More will be coming VERY soon. Expect the FBI to finally begin to retrieve its reputation. But more importantly, what are YOU going to do about it? I think it's time we started getting some of the militia's vaunted fax and phone trees going. Call your Congresscritter and your Senator. Read or fax their aides articles from this series. Demand to know what they are doing to investigate this atrocity and its shameful coverup. Don't just make the allegation, READ THEM THE PROOF. Call your media sources. GET OFF YOUR BUTTS AND DEMAND JUSTICE FOR THE OKC VICTIMS!

The Republic you save may be your own.

MUELLER FINGERED BURGLARY SUSPECTS TO REPORTER PRIOR TO HIS DEATH-- AN INTERVIEW FROM BEYOND THE GRAVE, OR:

GEORGE EATON INTRODUCES BILL MUELLER TO ANDY "THE PARROT" WHO INTRODUCES MUELLER TO "A REAL FAR-OUT GUY NAMED MIKE BRESCIA"

The Aryan spin doctors are still working overtime on the Mueller case, continuing to blame "New World Order assassins", etc....., everybody, in fact except the likely Aryan suspects. The latest effort has come from the Militia of Montana, dated 11 July 1996 and is titled "Operation Phoenix: Alive and Well in America," a luridly written piece that glosses over the very real Aryan/Oklahoma City Bombing connections to the Mueller murders and tries to fit the incident into a "New World Order" framework, as in: "Because of this heinous act to assassinate an entire family, we can accurately conclude that a purge has begun against the true American Patriots."

Now I am the first to admit that the Clinton Administration, and some of those who support it, contains elements that seek a globalist agenda. There are also elements in the same administration who are demonstrably pro-communist and pro-Soviet (oops, sorry, pro-Russian). There are others who could be described as merely socialist, or statist. And there's a big chunk of Clintonistas, hangers-on and supporters who are in it for the power and money, and to whom politics global or otherwise is merely a facade. The Star Chamber (see previous JD#2's for definition) is just such an entity. So too, in their own way, is the white supremacist movement in this country. Following their Turner Diaries "blueprint", they seek to use the Clinton Administration to repress American citizens, especially gunowners, militia folks, etc. to initiate a civil war that they believe they will win in the end, killing all the Jews, blacks, and "jew lovers and race traitors" like..... well, me and my constitutional militia unit, for one. In their book (and I suggest you read it) we are suitable to be soldiers in their race war but we will be eminently expendable after their "victory."

The only problem with the scenario is that the Clinton Administration (and the Star Chamber) are way ahead of their game. The Aryan Nations, Beam's Klan bunch, the Christian Identity movement and their Phineas Priesthood attack cells, are perhaps the most infiltrated group in American history since the American Communist Party (with the possible exception of the Black Panthers). Richard Butler and Louis Beam don't take a crap without the FBI's knowledge. If you don't believe me just ask Kirk Lyons to show you his pay stubs (although whether he was paid in both dollars AND deutchmarks is still a little unclear. Hey, Kirk, you're a lawyer, if I'm wrong go ahead and sue me. The discovery process would be most enlightening.). Not to mention, of course, our Bobsie Twins of Domestic Terrorism, the Mutt and Jeff of the ATF (and the Star Chamber, too!), Mssrs. Brescia and Strassmeir. (See John Doe #2, Part Twelve, for the latest on these two tax-payer funded beauties.) At some point I think we'll start to see the Aryans and the Klan eating each other and themselves when the true blue believers discover just how badly they've been sold down the river.

So what the country will end up with at the end of these orchestrated terrorist incidents will simply be a short civil war, one outcome of which could be a politically-correct statist Big Brother with a Bill Clinton face. Our republic will be gone, the Bill of Rights will be out the window, all because murdering haters allowed themselves to be manipulated by the sex-power-money crowd within and around the Clinton Administration.

Two things stand in the way: The First and Second Amendments to the Constitution. All that is necessary for the rats and cockroaches to scurry is a bright light shone on them and their activities. That is precisely what we are attempting to do with the OKC investigation with the help of our friends in the press. Odd isn't it, that there are people who call themselves "Patriots" within (and at the edges of) our movement who are doing their level best to ignore or obfuscate the evidence about the Aryan connection to OKC and Muellers?

If as MOM suggests there is a "purge" on against American patriots, it is a purge that the Aryans seek, and are assisting in. Now, do I believe that the Muellers were killed by Aryans or Star Chamber assassins sent to plug a "leak" in the OKC story. Sure. But the Muellers and a couple other "murder/suicide" cases involving ex-SF operators that have happened recently came not out of some general plan to wipe out militia/patriot leadership. They were killed for a most mundane reason, the keep them from talking. In the case of the Muellers it was about OKC, in the case of Mr. Gillespie in Vero Beach it was probably the Star Chamber that didn't want him around anymore. There are other cases, but each exhibits the same traits. So we can conclude that if you don't know something that can harm the Aryans or the Star Chamber, an assassin is unlikely to come to your door. Now the ATF might still be there to set you up for a headline or two, so don't relax just yet. But MOM is jumping to wild conclusions with very little evidence that we can see.

The second thing that stands in the way is the almighty Second. I'm sure I'm not alone in the desire to win our struggle against the Clinton Administration with the Truth written in banner headlines rather than rifles. But hey, I got into this business knowing the possible consequences. I think we all did. And I have no illusions about Bob Dole, either. So there's always "Plan B". But do you mind if we try "Plan A" until we no longer can?

And now without further ado, listen to Bill Mueller from beyond the grave.....

Story by Gene Wirges.

TRIPLE MURDERS A MYSTERY

Will three more names be added to the list of unexplained murders and suicides with ties to the Clinton Administration or un-named government enemies? Is there some strange connection to the Oklahoma City bombing?

Questions surfaced as the state Crime Laboratory identified three bodies recovered from Illinois Bayou off Highway 7, north of Russellville in northwestern Arkansas--- William "Bill" Mueller, 53, his wife Nancy, 28, and her eight-year-old daughter Sarah, of Tilly, a tiny community about 38 miles northeast of Russellville in Searcy County.

A TROUBLED INTERVIEW

Bill and Nancy Muellr were interviewed by COMMON SENSE AMERICAN in November, 1995, and Bill was photographed displaying items in his booth. Portions of that interview link peculiar factors-- demanding agents of the government's Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms, a man sought possibly as the elusive John Doe #2 in the Oklahoma City bombing, robbery of the Mueller home several months before the Murrah Building explosion, and what Mueller considered an assault on his right of free speech.

The Muellers had been reported missing in early January, 1996, when they didn't arrive as scheduled at a gun show in Oklahoma. Mueller was to have checked in at the show with its organizer White Turkey, but never showed. The Muellers' white Jeep Cherokee was found in Pope County the following month but police did not come to investigate for two weeks.

BODIES RECOVERED

Four more months elapsed before Friday, June 28, when a fisherman advised a nearby store owner to call police because he had discovered what appeared to be part of a leg from a human body in Illinois Bayou. Bodies were recovered by Saturday evening, the following day. Hands and legs were handcuffed together on both adults and heads were covered with duct-taped plastic bags. The girl's head was also covered with a plastic bag, bound with duct tape, but there were no handcuffs.

Exhibitors who worked gun and knife shows with Mueller were amazed by reports the murders may be tied to theft of guns being transported by Mueller to a show. Mueller had few guns, they said, and his booth at shows consisted mainly of books, magazines, T-shirts and bumper stickers. In fact, Mueller had obtained an FFL (federal firearms license) but after a short time, surrendered it and concentrated his efforts on magazines, T-shirts, bumper stickers and the like.

FELLOW EXHIBITORS PUZZLED

A news report quoted Nancy Mueller's aunt (Mary Ballard) as saying Mueller was taking a trailer-load of guns to a gun show in Springdale. That puzzled fellow exhibitors familiar with Muellers operation, partly because he had attended the Springdale show. They also expressed amazement at police speculation that a suspect wanted by Missouri authorities may be involved. James Wilson (aka Timothy Coombs) is being sought on warrants charging first degree assault and armed criminal action in the Sept. 16, 1994, shooting of Missouri State Trooper Bob Harper who had arrested Robert Joos, Jr., a Nazarite minister who heads a fringe religious group.

Wilson was a member of the United Kingdom of God Embassy, Yahweh's Ministries, in Tilly. He was arrested in 1991 for driving without a driver's license but contended state law requiring a license violated his religious beliefs. Dr. Denise Hollabaugh, Nancy Mueller's physician, said Wilson and Mueller knew each other but that Nancy had "gotten out of that cult." She added "they didn't want much to do with the government."

"HARD-WORKING PEOPLE"

Dr. Hollabaugh said the family was very close and once banded together to save family property that had fallen behind on taxes. She described the Muellers as "hard-working people." Searcy County, AR, Sheriff Kent Griggs said Wilson and Mueller were members of an anti-government group. Many items in Mueller's booth were critical of the liberal Clinton Administration-- "Bill Lied" and "Clinton-- Blow it Out Your Sax" are just two of the messages imparted.

Police are investigating the possibility robbery could have motivated the murders. In February, 1995, while the Muellers were attending a gun show, their Tilly home was burglarized and Mueller reported theft of gold and silver bullion and other coins in three ammunition cans, custom knives, ammunition, rifles, coin sets, toilet paper, towels, hair brush, deodorant and a constable's badge. Value was placed at $50,000 by some sources.

MORE FROM THE INTERVIEW

In the November 1995 interview at Little Rock's I-30 Expo Center, Mueller told the AMERICAN of the burglary at his home and said he had been having troubles with ATF, government agents who objected to anti-Clinton themes displayed in his show booth. He answered ATF objections by showing he had purchased (leased) booth space and pledged to operate within approved guidelines.

"It's been one strange thing after another," Mueller declared. "First the ATF tells me things in my booth have to be removed. THEN I'M INTRODUCED TO ANOTHER STRANGE CHARACTER, ANDY STRASSMIER, WHO SEEMED TO PARROT THE SAME ATF LINE. AND HE INTRODUCED ME TO A REAL FAR-OUT GUY NAMED MIKE BRESCIA (PRONOUNCED BRA-SEE-AH). (EMPHASIS SUPPLIED, MBV) He bought an item in the booth and I gave him change for a $10 bill. He insisted it was a $20. It was real wierd."

"....HAD A FEELING"

MUELLER SAID HE REMEMBERED BECAUSE HE BELIEVED ONE OR BOTH MIGHT BE CONNECTED WITH HIS HOME'S BURGLARY OR EVEN ATF. HE HAD WRITTEN BOTH NAMES IN A SMALL NOTEBOOK WHICH HE DISPLAYED DURING THE INTERVIEW. "YOU KNOW, I JUST HAD A FEELING." (EMPHASIS SUPPLIED, MBV).

Glenn Wilbourn of Oklahoma City, who lost two grandchildren in the Murrahe Building explosion, has sought answers to what many believe is complicated and mysterious. "I had someone in authority tell me government agents were set to arrest Brescia in Philadelphia about three weeks ago, but it didn't happen. Supposedly the arrest was in connection with bank robberies in the midwest," Wilbourn said.

GAVE 'EM THE SLIP

"Now I'm told Brescia gave 'em the slip and is somewhere in Canada. I wouldn't be surprised to find double-agents and counter-intelligence agents all through this thing, and I'm not sure we'll ever learn the real truth."

Mueller said he was later contacted by show organizers who suggested removal of "prohibited items." Later he forwarded a copy of "prohibited items" which included: "Books, magazines, pamphlets, bumper stickers, audio and video tapes that are not directly connected to gun collecting, knife collecting or hunting..." That would cover most of the items in Mueller's booth and he was upset.

ATF'S STRATEGIC PLAN Mueller contacted U.S. Rep. Tim Hutchinson who relayed the complaint to ATF in Washington, DC. In response, ATF Director John Magaw acknowledged the government had developed a "Strategic Plan" and presented it to gun show organizers. The purpose was to control "destructive subjects (which) may contribute to ...any negative image in regard to gun shows, he said. Magaw wrote that ATF has no actual jurisdiction over books, pamphlets, bumper stickers, etc., but "explained that promoters (of gun shows) may establish their own set of guidelines" over such materials.

In the ATF letter, Magaw said gun show promoters could avoid "restrictive regulation" by establishing an acceptable "code of ethics." Mueller seemed certain the threat of "restrictive regulation" was critical.

(TRANSCRIBER'S NOTE: AND HERE WE SEE HOW TRULY GESTAPO-LIKE THE ATF HAS BECOME. THEY ARE NOW THE THOUGHT POLICE AS WELL. -- MBV.)

Following the ATF "suggestion," show promoters began to "come down on" items critical of the Clinton Administration, Mueller told the AMERICAN. He saw this as an abridgement of his right of free speech. Magaw said Mueller had simply misunderstood the Strategic Plan. The list of prohibited items also includes items which encourage violent overthrow of the government, explain how to make destructive devices such as homemade bombs, or contain nudity." These were not part of Mueller's booth fare. (The ATF letter and "prohibited items" are published in this edition.)

DETAILS ABOUT THE BURGLARY

David Mason, who rented the Tilly home to the Muellers, said he found the front door lock "forced" after the Muellers disappeared and "the bottom of the door was kicked in." But he had no idea why anyone would want to abduct and kill them. His wife, Sylvia, described the Muellers as "a good Christian family...they were nice people."

George Eaton, publisher of the Patriot Report, said Mueller may have known who robbed his home in 1995. HE SAID HE MET MUELLER AT A GUN SHOW AND LATER INTRODUCED HIM TO ANDY STRASSMEIR, A FRIEND OF OKLAHOMA CITY BOMBING SUSPECT TIMOTHY MCVEIGH. (EMPHASIS SUPPLIED, MBV.)

Roger Moore of Royal (near Hot Springs) reported a masked man robbed him at his home, taking a number of weapons about two months before the robbery of Mueller's home. The FBI has said sale of guns from Moore's home may have helped finance the Oklahoma City bombing. No connection has been established between the two robberies, nor any connection of the Mueller robbery with the Oklahoma City bombing.

(TRANSCRIBER'S NOTE: NOT BY THE FBI. NOT YET ANYWAY. WHETHER OR NOT WE HAVE ESTABLISHED A LINK SHALL REMAIN, FOR NOW, UNANNOUNCED.)

COMING UP IN JOHN DOE #2 (PART TWELVE): JOHN CASH FINALLY RIPS THE SHROUD OFF THE ATF-STRASSMEIR LINK

First paragraph: "After months of official "no comments" and even outright denials, a highly placed source at the FBI has confirmed that Andreas Carl Strassmeir was a paid government informant sent by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms to infiltrate Elohim City-- a Christian Identity religious compound near Muldrow, Okla."

Sorry folks, you'll have to wait til tomorrow.... it's 1 in the morning and I'm out of gas.
